TO THE TO SET OF THE PERSON OF

Hill Road then north back to the top of the hill.

Q. Now, what property did it bound on the north?

- A. It bound on the north by the John W. Lee property and
- by the I can't think of the fellow's name right now that owns the property all the way across the back there that used to run the beer garden there and was also guard at Fort Detrick.
- Q. What direction was that?
- A. That was to the east of, southeast of the top of the boundary line, Rosencrantz.
- Q. I see, that would be the opposite side to the Flint Hill Road side?
- A. That's the opposite side that the Flint Hill Road runs parallel with the Flint Hill Road.
- Q. And, to the south what was the Lee property boundary line?
- A. It was bounded then by the which is owned now by Kenneth W. Parker was bounded by...these names "11 have to come to me.
- Q. Just take your time.

 A. He used to run the store there and he owned the property between the...maybe you could help me with this name.
- Q. No, I need an answer.
- A. You need the name from me, ckay, Lenhart.
- Q. And, that property is now owned by the Parkers, to the best of your knowledge?
- A. That property's now owned by the Parkers to the best of my knowledge with the exception of one (1) parcel... with the exception of one (1) little pie shaped triangle in there that is owned by another fellow right now.
